

Simplified Medical Report

This is AI generated information and not medical advice. Please consult a doctor for medical advice.

Medicines:

- Aspirin 81mg
- Lisinopril 10mg
- Metformin 500mg

Purpose:

Aspirin is for pain relief. Lisinopril is typically used for managing blood pressure. Metformin is used to help control blood sugar levels.

Dosage Instructions:

Aspirin: Take 1 tablet daily with food. Lisinopril: Take 1 tablet daily at the same time each day. Metformin: Take 2 tablets twice daily with meals.

Warnings & Side Effects:

- Aspirin: May cause stomach upset; take with food.
- Lisinopril: Monitor blood pressure regularly.
- Metformin: Monitor blood sugar levels regularly.